Jennifer Hannigan

INSTRUCTOR

About Jennifer:

---

Jennifer's journey from Air Force base to real estate success spans two decades on Florida's Emerald Coast. What started as a military assignment to Eglin Air Force Base became home when she met her husband Ben, a Special Operator who became both her life partner of 24 years and real estate business partner. Her thirst for knowledge took her from local colleges to the prestigious University of Cambridge, where she earned her Masters in Social & Developmental Psychology.

Today, Jennifer channels her psychology background and military discipline into empowering clients through real estate education as owner of Hannigan Realty, LLC. When she's not helping families find their perfect home, you'll find her leading community initiatives and supporting local nonprofits. For Jennifer, success means strengthening the community she's called home for over 20 years.
